Student Union and Societies Policy

This policy is approved by Université Paris Dauphine – PSL, London in accordance with the requirements of clause 22(3) of the UK Education Act 1994 which requires that the corporation shall take such steps as are reasonably practicable to secure that the student societies operate in a fair and democratic manner and are accountable for their own finances.

This policy extends and replaces the previous Student Societies Code of practice, issued in 2016.

1. DAUPHINE LONDON STUDENT UNION (DLSU) AND SOCIETIES

Dauphine London Student Union (DLSU) is the Student Union of Université Paris Dauphine – PSL, London, UK Higher Education Provider.

A number of Societies and Clubs are affiliated to the DLSU. Societies and Clubs affiliated to the DLSU may benefit from part of the funding allocated annually by the Université Paris Dauphine – PSL, London Board of Directors to the DLSU.

2. CONSTITUTIONS

The Dauphine London Student Union Constitution sets out the rules and regulation and the Université Paris Dauphine – PSL, London Student Union. Any amendments to the DLSU Constitution must be approved by the majority of the Student Union members, the Student Life and finally the Université Paris Dauphine – PSL, London Board of Directors.

Each Student Society shall have a written Constitution, approved by the Student Union’s Entertainment, Societies and Clubs Committee and reviewed by the Student Life Committee on an annual basis. Guidelines for writing a Society constitution are available to all students interested in forming a Society. The Society Constitution must reflect the mission of the Society and it must be compatible with the Université Paris Dauphine – PSL, London's core values.

3. MEMBERSHIP

3.1 Student Union membership

As per the DLSU Constitution, all students who are registered at Dauphine London – PSL shall be members of the DLSU upon enrolment, unless they have chosen to opt – out of membership. This is to encourage inclusivity and democratic functioning within the Student Union.

3.2 Student Societies membership

All the members of the DLSU may sign up to become a member of an affiliated Society. All societies must have a minimum of 10 members including the Society officers. Should it not reach this minimum number, they are encouraged to merge with another Club or Society. Each Society can charge a membership fee of £1 minimum as per the Society Constitution.
The Society must have an acceptable reason why its membership must be capped. The Society can select its members and the number of members, as set down in their Constitution. The Society should be as accessible to all students as possible. There may be occasions when some extracurricular activities organized by societies may require permission by parent(s) or guardian(s) to be given for the student to participate.

4. OFFICERS ELECTIONS

The elections regulations of the DLSU Officers are set out in the DLSU Constitution, which shall count eight active officers:
- One DLSU President
- One DLSU Vice-President
- One DLSU Higher Education Officer
- One DLSU Ecology Officer
- Two DLSU Welfare and Wellbeing Officers
- Two DLSU Entertainment, Societies and Clubs Officers

Each Student Society shall have a minimum of three officers: President, Secretary and Treasurer.

All DLSU and Society Officers shall be elected by all members secret ballot, on-campus or online.

A student cannot hold both Treasurer and President positions either in the same or in two different Societies / Student Union. No student can engage in more than two leadership positions. Before engaging in a leadership position, students need to carefully consider the time required to hold such position.

5. FINANCES

• The list of external affiliations with external societies will be recorded and retained by the Student Life Committee and Dean of Student Life.

7. FREEDOM OF SPEECH

• The Student Union, Clubs and Societies and their members are bound to observe Université Paris Dauphine – PSL, Academic Freedom Policy.
8. COMPLAINTS

- Any complaint about a Society shall be addressed to the President. The President shall make a written reply within 7 college days.
- If the complainant is not satisfied with the response, they may appeal to the Entertainment, Club and Societies Officers, who shall make a written reply within 7 college days and report the complaint at the next Entertainment, Club and Societies sub-Committee.
- If the complainant is not satisfied with the response, they may appeal to the Dean of Student Life, who will include the complaint at the agenda of the next Student Life Committee.
- If the complainant remains unsatisfied with the response from the Dean of Student Life, they may appeal to the Managing Director, as per Dauphine London – PSL Appeals and Complaints policy.

9. COMMUNICATION, IMAGE AND SOCIAL MEDIA

- The Union and all clubs and societies must abide by the use of guidelines set by the Université Paris Dauphine - PSL, London and the guide on the use of social media circulated to all enrolled students.
- The image of Université Paris Dauphine – PSL, London must be used for good purpose.
- Misuse of Social Networks and other forms of Information Technology will be subject to Disciplinary action.

10. USE OF LOGO AND OTHER PROPRIETARY MATERIAL

- Any use by a Student Society of the Dauphine London or the Université Paris Dauphine logo or other proprietary material owned by the Université, for instance (but without limitation) to print on T-shirts or hoodies for a social event, is subject to the prior approval of the Dean of Student Life or the Managing Director.

11. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

- The DLSU and all societies are expected to abide by this policy, the DLSU Constitution and their own constitution.
- Any student or Society that is deemed to have breached the rules of this policy, the DLSU Constitution or their own constitution will be subject to disciplinary action.
- A Disciplinary Committee comprised of the Dean of Student Life, the Managing Director, the at least two other faculty members and the President of the DLSU shall be convened within seven college days of the alleged offence occurring.
- The student or Society shall be given written notification of the time, date and place of the hearing, together with written notification of the alleged breach, at least three days before the hearing.
- The person bringing the charge or his/her representative shall call witnesses to give evidence as appropriate. They shall ask questions of the witnesses.
- The accused or his/her representative may call witnesses and question the person bringing the charge and his/her witnesses.
• The Committee will ask questions of the accused, witnesses and others who may be appropriate in the circumstances.
• The Disciplinary Committee will then deliberate and decide on the appropriate action to be taken.
• Possible sanctions would include the suspension of the accused from campus, suspension of the Society, a written warning, a fine, referral to counselling or review of his/her student status in the most severe situations.

12. POLICY ACCESS AND REVIEW

This policy shall be reviewed regularly and at least once a year.

It is accessible to all staff and students and included in all Welcome and Induction programmes.
