

BACHELOR'S IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

THE BEST OF FRENCH EDUCATION
IN THE HEART OF LONDON

QUICKFIRE QUESTIONS

WHAT IS UNIVERSITÉ PARIS DAUPHINE - PSL, LONDON CAMPUS?

We are part of Université Paris Dauphine – PSL, a prestigious university in Paris which specialises in economics, management, law, social sciences and mathematics. As a founding member of Université Paris Sciences & Lettres (PSL), we are consistently ranked among the top 50 universities in the world: best French university in the 2021 Times Higher Education and QS, 21st by CWUR and 38th by the Shanghai Academic World Rankings. By joining the Bachelor's in Economics and Management programme on the London campus, you are signing up for a degree from one of the most prestigious Higher Education Institutions in the world.

WHAT SETS US APART?

Our courses meet the finest standards of Higher Education worldwide. In 2022, we registered with the UK Office for Students (OfS), the independent regulator of Higher Education in England, which means that we meet their requirements for course quality, academic standards, student support, student protection and more. Our faculty team draws from the highest standards of anglophone teaching methods, through the world-class academic experience they received at some of the most elite universities globally.

We also wear our French influence on our sleeve, with rigorous coursework and significant amount of contact hours – indeed, roughly twice the amount of most UK universities. Our Bachelor's leads to the award of the prestigious degree of Grand établissement from Université Paris Dauphine – PSL and is EQUIS accredited.

WHAT'S THE CAMPUS LIKE?

Our beautiful, modern campus, with bright and spacious classrooms, breakout areas, a rooftop garden and a yard for socialising, is just a two-minute walk from Angel tube station, or a fifteen-minute walk from King's Cross St Pancras International. We're remarkably close to all the amenities that Central London has to offer.

WHAT ARE THE LANGUAGES REQUIREMENTS?

A proficient English level is required. We put a real emphasis on language proficiency and all of our students must study at least one additional language during their time with us. We want to prepare you for the exciting and international career you deserve, and language proficiency and cross-cultural understanding are essential components of that. At the University College London (UCL) Centre for Languages & International Education, you can choose from 9 languages.

WHAT COURSES DO WE OFFER?

In addition to the Bachelor's in Economics and Management, our boutique institution also delivers Executive Education and Summer School programmes, Study Abroad tracks and houses a Startup Incubator. With about 350 students yearly, we are able to give everyone the individualised attention that they need to succeed in a challenging and ever-changing international business career.

COURSE STRUCTURE: BACHELOR'S IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

Our Bachelor's in Economics and Management aims at training students who will operate in complex, cross-cultural, and demanding economic and business environments.

Our aim is to help our students to become well-rounded, adaptable, and high standards professionals, with strong analytical, problem-solving and communication skills in several languages. Beyond professionalism, our aim is to educate responsible citizens, aware of their responsibilities in society at large and the economic and business world in particular.

The two first years of the course provide a rigorous and theoretical strong foundation to high quality studies in economics, management, quantitative disciplines, law and social sciences. The third year of the course focuses mainly on management, while keeping an interdisciplinary approach.

Most of our students decide to study for a Master's at Université Paris Dauphine - PSL after their Bachelor's degree, in line with the French tradition. However, with Dauphine - PSL degrees among the most highly sought-after in the business world, you can also go straight into work after you graduate.
